39. In the event of any work required by the Mysore Tramways Regulation, 1906, or by this order to be done by the promoters not being done by them, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore may cause a notice to be served on the promoters requiring them within a reasonable period, to be prescribed in the said notice, to execute the said work, and if within the period so prescribed such requisition is not complied with, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore may cause such work to be done, and the cost thereof shall be recoverable from the promoters under Section 36 of the said Regulation.

On promoters' default works required by Regulation may be executed by Government at cost of promoters.

40. If the promoters fail to observe any condition, or direction contained in or made under this order, they shall for each such offence be liable to a penalty which may extend to two hundred rupees, and in the case of a continuing offence, to a further penalty, which may extend to fifty rupees, for each day after the first during which the offence continues. Every penalty recovered under this clause shall be applied as the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore from time to time direct.

Penalty for failing to observe any of the conditions or directions.

DISCONTINUANCE OF TRAMWAYS.

41. If it is proved to the satisfaction of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, at any time after the opening of this tramway, that the working of the tramway, or any part thereof, has been practically discontinued for the space of three months, without a reason sufficient, in the opinion of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, to warrant the discontinuance, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, if it thinks fit, may, by notification in the official gazette, declare that the powers of the promoter and of the lessee, if any, in respect of the tramway or the part thereof of which the working has been so discontinued, shall, from the date of notification, be at an end, and thereupon the said powers shall cease and determine, except in so far as they may be purchased by a local authority in the manner provided in the Mysore Tramways Regulation, 1906.

Cessation of powers of promoter and lessee, on discontinuance of tramway.

By Order,
W. MCHUTCHIN,
Secy. for Railways, Govt. of Mysore.
